St Macartan's Parish Prayer: Heavenly Father, Creator and giver of all good things, Pour down your Holy Spirit upon this parish of Saint Macartan and the community that worships here. Father, make us holy, inspire us to work together to spread your Gospel, strengthen our Faith and grant us the spirit of service, so that, with your grace and the help of our Lady Mary and St Macartan, we may glorify you and provide for the needs of our wider community. We ask You this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Entrance Antiphon: Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

First Reading Wis 6:12-16 A reading from the book of Wisdom

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim. By those who love her she is readily seen, and found by those who look for her. Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them. Watch for her early and you will have no trouble; you will find her sitting at your gates. Even to think about her is understanding fully grown; be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you. She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go, in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 62:2-8. R. v.2 (

R.) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

1. O God, you are my God, for you I long; for you my soul is thirsting. My body pines for you like a dry, weary land without water. (R.)
2. So I gaze on you in the sanctuary. to see your strength and your glory. For your love is better than life, my lips will speak your praise. (R.)
3. So I will bless you all my life, in your name I will lift up my hands. My soul shall be filled as with a banquet, my mouth shall praise you with joy. (R.)
4. On my bed I remember you. On you I muse through the night for you have been my help; in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Thes 4:13-18 A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Be watchful and ready: you know not when the Son of Man is coming. Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 25:1-13 A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five of them were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said, "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

The Gospel of the Lord

Communion Antiphon

The disciples recognized the Lord Jesus in the breaking of bread.

The John Pierce Centre provides a community centre open to Deaf or hard-of-hearing individuals and families, from children to adults, from all backgrounds. Isolation, loneliness and alienation can be major issues in the lives of Deaf people, so JPC delivers direct services and programs, strongly committed to providing proactive social welfare and empowerment. JPC has a chaplain who celebrates all the sacraments for the deaf and their families, using Auslan (Australian Sign Language).

JPC facilitates social activities bringing deaf people together.

PIETY STALL

The Piety Stall is now fully stocked for Christmas - Come along, support the Parish and check out the array of Nativity sets and Christmas decorations, plus gifts for children and adults. ALSO, we have a marked down table this week-end with various items.

Following the recent typhoon in Vietnam, we have been in contact with Fr Joe and he assures us that he and the Hope team are safe and well. They have been working in the south of the country and were unaffected by the bad weather.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL— CHRISTMAS HAMPERS

Reasonably able-bodied volunteers are required to assist in the preparation and distribution of hampers and gifts to the local community. The Conference also needs assistance in the collection of donated goodies from local schools and supermarkets.

The Hamper Programme commences on December 1st and concludes on December 19th. If you are able to help for a few hours on a particular day or days suitable to yourself, please contact the Parish Office on 5975 2200 and leave your name, phone number and email address and indicate your availability. We will be in touch in the last week of the month. With anticipated grateful thanks -

Social Justice Group

How quickly the year is passing, Advent and Christmas will soon be upon us. In both porches, you will see volunteer for assisting sheets—these are for collectors, readers, commentators, Eucharistic ministers, Altar Servers, Christmas Cake organising and any other duties which occur at this time.

If you know your Christmas plans, we would be grateful if you could please complete the sheets on the clipboards provided. Once completed, these sheets will be collected, collated and your preferred date, if possible, notified to you.

Thank you for your support and co-operation, The Liturgy Group.

PART-TIME PASTORAL WORKER ST MACARTAN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

We are seeking the employment of a suitably qualified person for this role.
This is a part-time position offering 20 hours per week.

Our Parish: St Macartan's community in Mornington is a well-respected, dynamic and vibrant Parish. We genuinely seek a quality person of faith with a heart for parish life and ministry. The Pastoral Worker will be a keen member of the Parish leadership team.

St Macartan's Parish Primary School is highly regarded with over 600 children in attendance. The Parish Priest is supported by an assistant Priest.

Objective: To assist the Parish Priest in leading and delivering the mission and pastoral care of the parish community in accordance with the principles, practices and teachings of the Catholic Church.

Purpose: The Pastoral Worker will support and assist volunteers in present ministries by helping with co-ordination and organisation of these ministries and providing training and formation. The Pastoral Worker will also explore ways of connecting and sustaining relationships with young families, children and youth.

For all enquiries, including a job description, please contact St Macartan's Parish Office on 5975 2200, Monday – Friday 9am – 3pm or at mornington@cam.org.au

Please submit your resume and covering letter to mornington@cam.org.au

Applications close Thursday 30th November 2017

YEAR OF YOUTH

The Australian Bishops have identified the liturgical year of 2018 beginning on the first Sunday of Advent (3rd Dec 2017), as a national Year of Youth. We would like to invite all parishioners to become involved in this special year. In the coming weeks, we will hold a parish meeting to discuss our plans for the year ahead. We would like to invite all parishioners to attend to talk about how we can engage the Youth of today. Please start thinking about ideas!

We would also like to invite our young people (age 16+) to become Youth Ambassadors for the Year. This would involve assisting the parish in promoting the Year of Youth and representing the youth of our parish.

If you are interested in becoming a Youth Ambassador or know of someone, please contact the Parish Office on 5975 2200 or come along to our parish meeting in the next few weeks (date to be advised). Please spread the word so we can all work together for our Youth.

Catherine, this is the updated notice...

THANKSGIVING ENVELOPES

All uncollected envelopes have now been sent in the post.
Please start using them from this weekend.

A NOTE TO ALL THANKSGIVING ENVELOPE USERS

If you have not already done so, please consider changing over to the Direct Debit method of payment. Currently the Thanksgiving envelope system costs more than $5000 per year to administer; this includes the cost of the envelopes, postage for those not collected from the foyer and work hours to run the administration of the envelope system.

If you wish to discuss this issue, or if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Marie Mills in the Parish Office (5975 2200) on a Wednesday or Thursday.

Thank you.
