Recently Deceased: Ray Cope.

First Reading Dt 8:2-3. 14-16

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

He gave you food which you and your ancestors did not know.

Moses said to the people: 'Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart – whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord. 'Do not then forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery: who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery serpents, scorpions, thirst; who in this waterless place brought you water from the hardest rock; who in this wilderness fed you with manna that your fathers had not known.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 147:12-15. 19-20. R. v.12

(R.) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

1. O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!
Zion, praise your God!

He has strengthened the bars of your gates,
he has blessed the children within you. (R.)

2. He has established peace on your borders, he feeds you with finest wheat.
He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command. (R.)

3. He makes his word known to Jacob, to Israel his laws and decrees.
He has not dealt thus with other nations;
he has not taught them his decrees. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Cor 10:16-17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Though we are many, we form a single body because we share this one loaf.

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 6:51-58

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

Jesus said to the crowd:

‘I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever;

and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.’

Then the Jews started arguing with one another: ‘How can this man give us his flesh to eat?’ they said. Jesus replied:

‘I tell you most solemnly,

if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood,

you will not have life in you.

Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood

has eternal life,

and I shall raise him up on the last day.

For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood

lives in me

and I live in him.

As I, who am sent by the living Father,

myself draw life from the Father,

so whoever eats me will draw life from me.

This is the bread come down from heaven;

not like the bread our ancestors ate:

they are dead,

but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.’

The Creed is said.

Communion Antiphon

Jn 6:57

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

gospel focus

Real Presence

In the gospel passage, Jesus speaks a number of times about his followers eating his flesh and drinking his blood; "For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink." In the Eucharist, we celebrate the 'real presence' of Jesus, understanding that bread and wine is changed into the body and blood of Christ. This change does not occur in a physical, observable way. The Church teaches that the 'substance' of bread and wine (what makes them bread and wine in essence) is changed but not the physical attributes. This is known as 'transubstantiation' – change of substance.

Gospel Reflection

The feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, also known as Corpus Christi, celebrates and commemorates the institution of the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Although the liturgy on Holy Thursday remembers the celebration of the Last Supper, its focus tends to be more aligned with the events of the Passion rather than on the institution of the Eucharist. In the 13th Century, Pope Urban IV established the feast of Corpus Christi (the Body of Christ) and it was St Thomas Aquinas who composed the official prayers of the Church for the feast day. In 1970 the feast was changed to the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. In some countries it is celebrated on the Thursday following Trinity Sunday and in others on the following Sunday. The gospel passage comes from the 6th chapter of the gospel of John in which the gospel writer has Jesus deliver an extended discourse on the image of himself as the Bread of Life. This passage comes from the end of that discourse and, in this relatively short passage, Jesus repeatedly demands that his followers must eat his flesh and drink his blood. It is through these actions that his followers will share in eternal life. Jesus says that whoever does this will live in him and he will live in them. That is one of the fundamental beliefs about the Eucharist. When we receive the body and blood of Jesus in the Eucharist we become what we receive – we become Christ's body in the world. When Jesus called his disciples, he called them to be like himself. He reissues that call to be like him every time we receive his body and blood in Eucharist.

Scriptural context – Eucharist in Scripture

The gospel of John does not include any account of Jesus taking bread and wine and urging the disciples to 'do this in memory of me'. The three synoptic gospels, however, all feature these actions and words, as does Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, which predates all of the gospels. Rather than using these words of institution, the gospel of John includes an entire chapter much earlier in the gospel in which Jesus theologises about the image of himself as the Bread of Life. It is this discourse, more than the Last Supper accounts, that provides much of the theological understanding of Eucharist.

Living the Gospel

Meals are very important events. Not only do we physically need food and drink to keep ourselves alive, but we use meals to mark occasions and celebrate events: birthdays; weddings; dates; achievements; disappointments; reunions. There is a sacredness about gathering with friends and family and sharing a meal together. Stories are told; memories shared; the food is appreciated and more often than not there's a drink to accompany the meal. Treating such occasions with gratitude – as blessed moments of grace – is living out the Eucharistic reality of welcoming Jesus into our lives and seeking to be more like him.

Pope Francis' itinerary for World Youth Day 2023

The Holy See Press Office releases the itinerary of Pope Francis' visit to Portugal from 2 to 6 August for the 37th World Youth Day. By Francesca Merlo

The Holy See Press Office on Tuesday, 6 June, released Pope Francis' schedule for the 2023 World Youth Day, to take place from 1 to 6 August 2023 in Lisbon, Portugal. Over 400,000 young people have registered to take part in the event on 1-6 August 2023. In a video message released earlier this month, the Holy Father said that the desire of these young people to travel to the Portuguese capital later this year fills him with joy. Pope Francis has presided over four World Youth Days, having previously done so in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in 2013; Krakow, Poland, in 2016; and Panama City, Panama, in 2019. World Youth Day was originally scheduled to take place in Lisbon, Portugal, in 2022, but was postponed due to the Covid-19 pandemic. For this year's World Youth Day, Pope Francis has chosen a passage from Luke's Gospel: "Mary arose and went with haste" (Lk 1:39), which opens the account of the Visitation, when Mary visits her cousin Elizabeth following the angel's announcement to the Blessed Mother that she would be the mother of the Son of God.

Pope's itinerary: Wednesday 2 August: arrival in Portugal. The Pope will depart at 7.50 am on Wednesday 2 August from Rome's Fiumicino airport and arrive at 10 am at the Figo Maduro air base in Lisbon. Immediately afterwards, he will be greeted at the National Palace in Belém by the President of the Republic Marcelo Rebelo de Sousa. Also in the Belém district, in the cultural centre, he will meet the authorities, civil society and the diplomatic corps. At 4.45 p.m. in the Apostolic Nunciature, he will meet with the Prime Minister and at 5.30 p.m., in the famous Monastery dos Jerónimos, he will celebrate Vespers with bishops, priests, deacons, consecrated men and women, seminarians and pastoral workers.

Thursday 3 August: welcoming ceremony for the WYD: On Thursday morning, Pope Francis will meet the students on the premises of the Universidade Católica Portuguesa. Then he will leave Lisbon for nearby Cascais, where he will greet the young people of Scholas Occurrentes who have their headquarters there. In the afternoon he will return to the Portuguese capital for the welcoming ceremony of WYD, which will take place at the Edward VII Park.

Friday 4 August: Way of the Cross with young people: Some young people from WYD will receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation from the Pope in the "so Império" square in Belém on the morning of Friday 4 August. At around 9.45 am, Francis himself will go to the "de Serafina" parish centre to meet with representatives of some assistance and charity centres. At 12 noon there will be lunch with young people in the Apostolic Nunciature, while at 6 pm the Pontiff will preside over the Stations of the Cross with young people in Edward VII Park.

Saturday 5 August: visit to Fatima and WYD vigil: The Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima will be visited by the Pope on the morning of Saturday 5 August. Francis will leave Lisbon by helicopter for the Fatima Stadium at 8.00 am and at 9.30 am will pray the Holy Rosary with the sick young people at the Chapel of Apparitions. Around noon, he is scheduled to return to the capital. The vigil with young people will take place in Tejo Park.

Sunday 6 August: Holy Mass and the return to the Vatican: The concluding Mass for World Youth Day will be celebrated by the Pope again in Tejo Park on Sunday 6 August at 9 a.m. In the afternoon there will be a meeting with the WYD volunteers at the 'passeio marítimo' in Algè, before the farewell ceremony at the Figo Maduro airbase.

PARISHIONERS OF ST MACARTAN'S WE ARE LOSING ONE OF OUR FAVOURITE SON'S

Yes parishioners; time has come, as I sadly knew it would one day.
That Fr Jude Johnson the BEST Assistant Priest I have ever had,
is leaving!

Fr Jude has been appointed by the Archbishop,
as Assistant Priest to St Mary of the Angels - Geelong.

Our loss is their fortunate gain.

He begins there on Wednesday 16th August.

Assistant Priests often get moved around in the archdiocese, to assist in their training and development. We have been blessed to have Fr Jude here for the last 20 months and he has been exceptional!

He is leaving here with new abilities, as well as better skills, mostly taught by you, the parishioners of St Macartan's.

Fr Jude will preside at all masses on the weekend of 12th & 13th August and you are invited to come and say farewell on Saturday 12th August at 7pm (after 6pm Mass)
in the Parish Hall or Community House TBA.

Please bring a plate of savoury or sweet and liaise with Jody on who is bringing what on 0450096210.

I will say more later,
Fr Geoff

CHILD SAFETY

Dear Parishioners, grandparents, parents & guardians, as winter is approaching and the cold weather drives us inside, school children spend more time on their devices playing & communicating with others.

Please forward this article to your family and if you have time have a quick read. The message it sends will help raise our awareness about online safety.

New Australian Federal Police picture book helps raise awareness about online safety

The first-of-its-kind picture book 'Jack Changes the Game', written by Tess Rowley and illustrated by Shannon Horsfall, has been developed by the AFP's ThinkUKnow program, in partnership with the AFP-led Australian Centre to Counter Child Exploitation (ACCCE) .

The book is based on a real report to the ACCCE and gives age-appropriate advice on how to recognise online child sexual exploitation, including online grooming, and how to take action and make a report to police.

The e-book, as well as at home learning resources for parents and carers, a teacher's toolkit and student activity pack to reinforce key concepts from the book, are available on the ThinkUKnow website

Parish Footy Tipping Competition

The footy season is half way through but it's still hard to tip winners. Only Molly Meier tipped 7/7 last week. Lincoln has been joined in the lead by Tuttle 2021, followed 2 behind by Helens Babies, Geoffrey Lane , Doggies DF and Molly with 1 back to Paul The Bulldog, Debra 1974 and Maree O'Halloran.

DID YOU KNOW?---Monday is the annual Big Freeze event which occurs as part of the King's Birthday clash between Melbourne and Collingwood. The 2023 slide marks the ninth iteration of the famous Big Freeze beanie with its proceeds going towards research and initiatives to find effective treatments and ultimately a cure for MND. Neale Daniher AO, has been a prominent campaigner for the event and those affected by MND. Which Club did Neale play 82 games for? Which 2 Clubs did he have a coaching role with before coaching 228 games with Melbourne and what was his nickname? In September 1990, he played alongside his 3 brothers becoming the first quartet of brothers to play for the same team in a single VFL/AFL game. Do you know the names of his 3 brothers??

MEN'S NIGHT

St Macartan says it doesn't matter if your team lost, so come along to the Men's Night on Thursday 15th June at 5pm in the Community Centre and be cheered up in the company of fellow winners and grinners. BYO and $2 donation. The Three Amigos.

Jokes of the Week

#1) The Pope and the most renowned Rabbi are having a discussion...

...But neither of them speak a common language, and they want the meeting to be private. So the two icons decide to attempted to speak in their own signs to communicate.

The Pope starts by making a circular motion over with his hand

The Rabbi responds by pointing down at the ground

The Pope holds up 3 fingers

The Rabbi holds up 1

The Pope took out the wine and wafers

The Rabbi took out an apple

Then the two went their separate ways, the priests talked with the Pope and asked, "Well?

What happened?" "He had me beat at every turn," The Pope responded, "I waved my hand around to say God is everywhere and he pointed down to say God is here, I held up 3 fingers to symbolize the Father, the Son, and The Holy Ghost, He held up one to say There is one God. I showed him the Body and Blood of Christ, and he showed me an Apple to remind me of Eve's original sin."

The Rabbi then went back to the other Rabbis and told of his experience "I don't quite know what happened," He said, "I waved his arm around to say 'Get out of here' so I pointed down to tell him I'm staying he gave me 3 seconds to get out so I gave one finger, to say give me a minute, then he showed me his lunch so I showed him mine"

#2) Why is bread the body of Christ? Because he is risen.

#3) A drunk walks up to two priests... He says "I'm Jesus Christ."

The priest shakes his head. "No son, you're not."

The drunk goes up to the second priest. "I'm Jesus Christ."

The second priest gives the same answer.

The drunk glares at them for a second. "Look I can prove it. Follow me."

He leads them to a bar and walks inside.

The bartender takes one look at him and says, "Jesus Christ, you're here AGAIN?!"

#4) Burglary: An elderly woman had just returned to her home from an evening worship service and was startled to find an intruder in her house. Catching the man in the act of burglarizing her home, she yelled, "STOP! Acts 2:38! " ("Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven. ")As the burglar stopped dead in his tracks, the woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done. Shortly, several officers arrived and took the man into custody. As he was placing the handcuffs on the burglar, one of the officers asked, "Why did you just stand there? All the lady did was mention a scripture verse. "Scripture? " replied the burglar. "She said she had an axe and two 38's ! "
