St Macartan's Parish Prayer: Heavenly Father, Creator and giver of all good things, Pour down your Holy Spirit upon this parish of Saint Macartan and the community that worships here. Father, make us holy, inspire us to work together to spread your Gospel, strengthen our Faith and grant us the spirit of service, so that, with your grace and the help of our Lady Mary and St Macartan, we may glorify you and provide for the needs of our wider community. We ask You this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Entrance Antiphon: How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

First Reading Ez 34:11-12. 15-17 A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

You, my flock, I judge between sheep and sheep. Lord says this: I am going to look after my flock myself and keep all of it in view. As a shepherd keeps all his flock in view when he stands up in the middle of his scattered sheep, so shall I keep my sheep in view. I shall rescue them from wherever they have been scattered during the mist and darkness. I myself will pasture my sheep, I myself will show them where to rest – it is the Lord who speaks. I shall look for the lost one, bring back the stray, bandage the wounded and make the weak strong. I shall watch over the fat and healthy. I shall be a true shepherd to them. As for you, my sheep, the Lord says this: I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and he-goats. The Word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 22:1-3. 5-6. R. v.1

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. (R.)
2. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. (R.)
3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. (R.)

4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Cor 15:20-26. 28 A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death. And when everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subject in his turn to the One who subjected all things to him, so that God may be all in all. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessings on him who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessings on the coming kingdom of our father David! Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 25:31-46 A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.' The Gospel of the Lord

Communion Antiphon: The Lord sits as King for ever. The Lord will bless his people with peace.

RECEPTION INTO THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

With thanksgiving to God we are pleased to announce that Joshua Moore will, through Confirmation and reception of Holy Communion, be fully initiated into the Catholic faith this Sunday, the Feast of Christ the King. Please pray for him.

PIETY STALL—The Piety Stall is now fully stocked for Christmas - please support the Parish and check out the array of Nativity sets and Christmas decorations, plus gifts for children and adults. ALSO, we have a marked down table this week-end with various items. Come along and pick up a bargain!

St Macartan's School Community have produced a Cook Book, cost $30.00, which is available for sale in the Piety Stall. A great gift idea for Christmas.

NOTICE TO ALL PIETY STALL VOLUNTEERS

Morning Coffee in the Community Centre
Friday December 1st @ 10am.

This is a good opportunity to have a catch up and say thank you for your work throughout the year. Hope you can all join us.

Jennifer and Lucia

The Life, Family and Marriage Office have organised the following events to pray for the assisted dying bill. They would like as many people as possible to attend.

Eucharistic Adoration – Sunday 26 November

St Augustine's Catholic Church
631 Bourke St, Melbourne
6:45 PM – 7:45 PM (followed by Mass at 8:00 PM)

Silent Prayer Vigil – Wednesday 29 November

On the steps of Parliament House
Spring St, Melbourne 7:30 PM

Rosters for Sunday Ministers— The next two rosters for readers/commentators and Extraordinary ministers of Communion will be drawn up soon. These will cover from Christmas to the end of May. If you want to vary your preferred time or you know you will be away during that time, please leave a note for me in the parish office by the 11th December.

New volunteers always very welcome. To allow each volunteer to have one turn per month requires a minimum of 8 readers and 12 extraordinary ministers for each Mass. As some are inevitably away or unwell, we need a small reserve to cover a fifth Sunday and absences. The current availability is:

6.00pm Mass 12 readers 21 ministers (includes 6 in both categories)

9.00am Mass 8 readers 9 ministers

11.00am Mass 10 readers 14 ministers (includes 2 in both)

The reality of these figures is that—6pm Mass is fine, 11am Mass needs a few more in each group, 9am Mass is in dire straits! I remain in cheerful hope! Thanks, Chris Smyth

CHRISTMAS THANK YOU PARTY!

An invitation is extended to all who have assisted within the parish this past year to say thank you for your contribution to parish life. Wine, soft drink and finger food will be provided, BYO other drinks.

Tuesday 5th December from 7-9pm in the Parish Hall. Look forward to seeing you there.

Fr Joe, Fr Joel, and the PPC
