Mass Intentions

First Reading Gen 3:9-15 A reading from the book of Genesis

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.' Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, 'Be accursed beyond all cattle, all wild beasts. You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust every day of your life. I will make you enemies of each other: you and the woman, your offspring and her offspring. It will crush your head and you will strike its heel.' The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 129. R. v.7

(R.) With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

1. Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, Lord, hear my voice! O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading. (R.)
2. If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive? But with you is found for giveness: for this we revere you. (R.)
3. My soul is waiting for the Lord, I count on his word. My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak. (R.)
4. Because with the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity. (R.)

Second Reading 2 Cor 4:13-5: A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture – I believed, therefore I spoke - we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God. That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal. For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens. The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! The prince of this world will now be cast out, and when I am lifted up from the earth I will draw all to myself, says the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 3:20-35 A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus went home with his disciples, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind. The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying, 'Beelzebul is in him,' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So he called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he cannot stand either - it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house. 'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies; but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.' His mother and brothers now arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.' He replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.' The Gospel of the Lord

Communion Antiphon

God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God in him.

THIS WEEKEND'S LEAVING COLLECTION
ST VINCENT DE PAUL'S ANNUAL WINTER APPEAL

Over 116,000 women, children and men are experiencing or are at risk of homelessness on any given night in Australia, a statistic Vinnies knows all too well. It's easy to forget that people struggling to make ends meet are people just like you and me. They face choices no-one should have to make. A job loss, physical or mental health issues, toxic relationships—can all threaten someone's security. Winter is a very difficult time of year if you are homeless or you can't pay for your heating or other essentials. We rely on generous donations from the community to support our Winter Appeal. All monies donated this weekend will help those in need in our local community.

Thank you for your generosity.

ST MACARTAN'S PARISH—FAMILY GROUPS

Family Groups have been running in our Parish for many years. The aim of these groups is to get to know other members of the parish, to support each other, sharing each others joys and sorrows and so building the Christian community. A Family Group usually has 12-15 families – often ranging in age, ie. couples with young children, singles, older people. These groups often become great supports for one another. This is a wonderful way for new people to 'fit in' and for established parishioners to form new friendships. Groups meet monthly and share social occasions; each Group organising their own timetable/diary.

All parishioners are welcome to join these groups.

Please call the Parish Office on 5975 2200 or contact Lisa Chiezey at lisachiezey@hotmail.com for further information.

ENCOUNTER YOUTH - All Grade 4 to 6 young people are Welcome!

Parish Footy Tipping Round 11.... Although there are 23 rounds, teams only play 22 games. After this round all teams except Port Adelaide and Gold Coast will have completed half the season. The other teams will have a bye in rounds 12 to 14. At the half mark, except for two clubs, the top ten tippers are Adam L, 75, Marie O'Halloran, Debbie McMahon, Chris Smyth, and Geoffrey Walsh (all 72), Mike Barden, Tessa Houlihan (both 71), Trish Wallace, 70, Kees Duyvestyn, Paul Stinnear and Tony McNerney (all 69). There is a close battle between Granny Pie and Granny Finn. Only 1 point separates them but, not surprising, as they think very much the same!!! In round 11 most tippers were very happy by the end of Saturday games except Bulldog and Essendon supporters. At least in round 12 Bulldogs will have a bye instead of a loss as will Hawthorn, Carlton and WCE. St Kilda supporters only wish the Saints could be as accurate as they were in last term against WCE where they nearly defeated the leaders. HISTORY: Moving ten years on from 1897 to 1907 we find the top form teams to play in the finals were Carlton, South Melbourne (1st time in Finals), St Kilda and Collingwood. A different finals' system to 1897. First plays 3rd and 2nd plays fourth. The twos play in the Grand Final. The winners were Carlton and South Melbourne Carlton won the Grand Final by 5 points. Carlton's second successive Premiership. (if only it was the same in 2018!) Hughie, Callan South's best player lost his life in World War 1. The umpire was Lardie Tulloch who had previously captained Collingwood to two premierships. Forty six thousand watched the Grand Final accurate as they were in last term against WCE where they nearly defeated the leaders.
