First Reading Jer 23:1-6 A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

'Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered – it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them. Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds – it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost – it is the Lord who speaks! 'See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. And this is the name he will be called: The Lord-our-integrity.'

The Word of The Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 22. R. v.2

(R.) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. (R.)
2. He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff, with these you give me comfort. (R.)
3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. (R.)
4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. (R.)

Second Reading Eph 2:13-18 A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God. In his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

The Word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me. Alleluia!

Gospel Mk 6:30-34 A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, 'You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while'; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

The Gospel of the Lord

Communion Antiphon

Behold, I stand at the door and knock, says the Lord. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door to me, I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me.

Footy Tips Round 17... Another exciting round started on the Thursday night with a win to Adelaide Crows over Geelong. It seems that Geelong have decided to alternate their wins and losses. On that basis, they should win this week against Melbourne. Richmond continued to lose their away games having lost 4 interstate games. Fortunately, the Grand Final is played in Melbourne. Less people in black and yellow at Mass. Collingwood got the wobbles against WCE while the Brisbane Lions outclassed a potential finalist in Hawthorn. (Time Paul G. for new sticker). Pearl, who is a regular caller to the "Could have been champions" on a Saturday morning suggested Carlton should wash their jumpers (horrible grey) in Borak or, if that fails, lemon juice and vinegar. Better still, they should stick with their real jumper'. An interesting comment was made by premiership player and teacher, David Parkin, at Gold Saints Luncheon. He praised Hawthorn, Geelong and Sydney for employing staff to make sure players have other activities other than football. Whether it be work, study or voluntary providing it prepared them for life other than football.

Many tippers have a chance of finishing in the top ten! HISTORY: In 1928 the final four were Collingwood, Richmond, Carlton and Melbourne. Collingwood and Melbourne drew in the second semi-final but Collingwood won the replay by 4 points. In the Grand Final Collingwood defeated Richmond by 33 points before a crowd of 50,026 who paid 2533 pounds. Some famous names you may remember; Coll. Syd Coventry, A.Collier, H.Collier, Beveridge J McHale (coach) Rich. J. Titus.
