Mass Intentions

First Reading Eccl 1:2; 2:21-23

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity!

For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 89:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. v.1

(R.) In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

1. You turn men back into dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.'

To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night.

2. You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and flowers: by evening it withers and fades.

3. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants.

4. In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands.

Second Reading Col 3:1-5, 9-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia! Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 12:13-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied, 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.'

Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do; I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time." But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.'

Communion Antiphon Wis 16:20

You have given us, O Lord, bread from heaven, endowed with all delights and sweetness in every taste.

Congratulations To:

Xavier and Isla Knuppel who receive their Sacrament of Baptism this Sunday 4th Aug .

May they always walk in the light of Christ

SPONSORSHIP AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS TO ACYF

Catholic Education Melbourne announced earlier this year that they were committed to assisting Catholic Secondary students in attending the Melbourne Pilgrimage to the Australian Catholic Youth Festival in Perth. Sponsorship was offered to the 68 Catholic Secondary Schools within the Melbourne Archdiocese allowing up to 20 students and 2 teachers from each school to attend with a 50 per cent subsidy for their pilgrimage registration cost. This subsidy is available to any student enrolled in a Catholic Secondary School within the Archdiocese of Melbourne, regardless of whether they are attending the Melbourne Pilgrimage with their school, another group or the Melbourne Collective Group (MCG). It is hoped that students who would like to attend the Melbourne Pilgrimage will take up this opportunity and receive support to attend. Catholic Education Melbourne acknowledges the importance of encouraging students in their life-long faith journey and supporting them to connect with groups that nourish their faith.

Details and to apply online: <https://www.cam.org.au/acyf19/Announcements>. There are a limited number of subsidies available and applications need to be received by Sunday 11 August.

THINK ABOUT IT

"I am reminded of the true story of a Bishop in South America who severely criticised rigid priests in his diocese who had refused to baptise the child of an unmarried woman. He called them hypocrites, praised the young woman who had carried the baby to term, and lamented the fact that she had had to wander from presbytery to presbytery for the baptism of her child. That Bishop was elected Pope. That is why I am so full of hope for the future of the Church." Thanks, Fr Michael Tate published in Liturgy Help.

Care Group Reunion

Joan Clement would like to invite all formal members of St Macartan's Care Group to Reunion Lunch at Brookland on Tanti Ave, at 12pm Wednesday 7th August

St Macartan's Women's Retreat 2019 9th—11th August at Pallotti College Millgrove!

Let us take time to listen to the words of Jesus, beckoning us to come apart and rest while; Matthew 11:18.

It is time not easily found in the rush and busy times of our daily lives. We need to reclaim a sacred balance in our life, as women we can help one another acknowledge that there is more to life than increasing its speed! It is good to take some time out, some space to be still, to pray and reflect and to let the God within speak to us and for us to listen and embrace God's word. God is here, each moment is holy.

I am with you on the journey, and I will never leave you.

I am with you on the journey, always with you'

Our Retreat facilitator Mary Cameron has recently retired from Padua College where she was the College Pastoral Associate for seventeen years. She has worked for the Melbourne Archdiocese, Melbourne seminary and within parish. An experienced pastoral supervisor, retreat facilitator and counsellor, Mary will lead us through a weekend of prayer and reflection. She is the mother of three adult sons and grandmother of eight grandchildren who are the delight of her life. Mary is a new member of ACRATH, Australian Catholic Religious Against Trafficking in Humans, and hopes to work closely with them to help bring about change in protecting our vulnerable sisters and brothers.

Cost is $220 for two nights accommodation with all meals included - no added costs no price can be put on what a weekend like this can do for our heart and spirit. Limited availability. Please join us for this time to be among women and unit in fellowship. Contact Mel Kiernan 0416 060 373 or Jacinta Jolly 0400 791 971 for information or those needing a lift.

PIETY STALL

Thank you Jennifer Rooney and Lucia Keightley, on the behalf of our parish, I would like to express our gratitude for your outstanding contribution, diligent and hard working over a decade of managing the Parish Piety Stall.

New Management.

We welcome and thank Trish Thomas and Carmel Drake, they have volunteered to Co-ordinate the management of the Piety Stall. Trish has had many years experience being a willing worker at the Piety Stall so is ably equipped to take over this new role. Jennifer Rooney and Lucia Keightley wish to thank all the volunteers involved for their support over the past ten years and know that Trish and Carmel will continue to have your assistance in this venture to carry forward the faith message.

New Stock has arrived: Olive Wood Comfort Crosses

The "Comfort Cross" is a beautifully crafted piece of Olive Wood which fits Comfortably into the palm of the hand as an aid to prayer or meditation. Ideal as a spiritual companion for comforting worries and stresses and focusing the prayer of the sick and elderly. Come & visit.

Parish Footy Tipping Round 19

R19 started with a Friday night game between Richmond and Collingwood Expectation ---a great game. Reality-- very disappointing. No tipper chose 9 ,partly,due to Hawthorn's loss and to Carlton's victory over Adelaide. Three members chose 8 and they were Kees Duyvestyn, Trish Duryrea and Tony McInerney. The tipping lead changed during the round but, due to a one point win to GWS Adam Lane leads by one from Di Walsh. The colours of the umpires' outfit were vey similar to Tigers. Will that make the people jump up and down?. The Last Quarter , the story of Adam Goodes\ last years of football has upset most football supporters and non supporters as well.. The big question? How can an Australian of the Year be treated so badly?.

HISTORY We mentioned the amazing forward work of Essendon in 2000. However we cannot forget the great work of the defence. Essendon deserved the premiership We cannot overlook the great goal kicking in 1919 when Sth. Melb played St.Kilda. At 3/4 time Sth 12 11 to Saints 2=6. Tensions between St Kilda players and officials grew. Several players marched off the ground in disgust . Sth scored 17 goals in the last term . South score of 29==15--189 and their winning margin of 171 points are both records. Harold Robertson was chaired off the ground having kicked 14 goals He shattered the previous record of 11 goals shared by Jim McShane (Geelong, 1899 Collingwood champion Dick Lee 1914)
