Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 85:1-3

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God.
Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

First Reading Is 66:18-21

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord says this: I am coming to gather the nations of every language. They shall come to witness my glory. I will give them a sign and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Moshech, Rosh, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant islands that have never heard of me or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory to the nations. As an offering to the Lord they will bring all your brothers, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, on dromedaries, from all the nations to my holy mountain in Jerusalem, says the Lord, like Israelites bringing oblations in clean vessels to the Temple of the Lord. And of some of them I will make priests and Levites, says the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 116. R. Mk 16:15

(R.) Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

1. O praise the Lord, all you nations, acclaim him all you peoples!
2. Strong is his love for us; he is faithful for ever.

(R.) Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

Second Reading Heb 12:5-7, 11-13

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Have you forgotten that encouraging text in which you are addressed as sons? My son, when the Lord corrects you, do not treat it lightly; but do not get discouraged when he reprimands you. For the Lord trains the ones that he loves and he punishes all those that he acknowledges as his sons. Suffering is part of your training; God is treating you as his sons. Has there ever been any son whose father did not train him? Of course, any punishment is most painful at the time, and far from pleasant; but later, in those on whom it has been used, it bears fruit in peace and goodness. So hold up your limp arms and steady your trembling knees and smooth out the path you tread; then the injured limb will not be wrenched, it will grow strong again.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 14:6

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me. Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 13:22-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem. Someone said to him, 'Sir, will there be only a few saved?' He said to them, 'Try your best to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed. 'Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself knocking on the door, saying, "Lord, open to us" but he will answer, "I do not know where you come from." Then you will find yourself saying, "We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets" but he will reply, "I do not know where you come from. Away from me, all you wicked men!"

'Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves turned outside. And men from east and west, from north and south, will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

'Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.'

Communion Antiphon Cf. Jn 6:54

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, says the Lord, and I will raise him up on the last day.

We Welcome Theresa Collard—Our new Parish Secretary

Financial support available to Melbourne ACYF pilgrims

Thanks to the generosity of parishioner donations and sponsors the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne is able to offer financial support to young people who wish to participate in the Melbourne ACYF pilgrimage. Our hope is that as many young Melburnians as possible have the opportunity to be part of this pilgrimage regardless of their financial situation.

A limited number of subsidies are available to pilgrims who; 1. meet the criteria to be a Melbourne ACYF pilgrim, 2. are travelling with a registered Melbourne ACYF pilgrimage group - either a Melbourne Collective Group (MCG) or a self-managed group parish / community group, 3. have not been allocated a subsidy from Catholic Education Melbourne 4. require financial support in order to participate in the Melbourne ACYF pilgrimage.

To apply for financial support please complete the application form as soon as possible. You will need to include details of your pilgrimage groups and contact details for a pastoral referee as part of the application. Applications will be assessed and processed within three business days of submission. Pilgrims will be informed of the outcome of the application and any subsidy allocated will be credited directly to their registration.

Pilgrim registrations close 30 August so it is essential to apply quickly!

SPONSORSHIP AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS TO ACYF

Catholic Education Melbourne announced earlier this year that they were committed to assisting Catholic Secondary students in attending the Melbourne Pilgrimage to the Australian Catholic Youth Festival in Perth. Sponsorship was offered to the 68 Catholic Secondary Schools within the Melbourne Archdiocese allowing up to 20 students and 2 teachers from each school to attend with a 50 per cent subsidy for their pilgrimage registration cost. This subsidy is available to any student enrolled in a Catholic Secondary School within the Archdiocese of Melbourne, regardless of whether they are attending the Melbourne Pilgrimage with their school, another group or the Melbourne Collective Group (MCG). It is hoped that students who would like to attend the Melbourne Pilgrimage will take up this opportunity and receive support to attend. Catholic Education Melbourne acknowledges the importance of encouraging students in their life-long faith journey and supporting them to connect with groups that nourish their faith.

Details and to apply online: <https://www.cam.org.au/acyf19/Announcements>. There are a limited number of subsidies available and applications need to be received by Sunday 11 August.

Parish Footy Tipping Round 21

Round 21 had an impact on the leadership board due a number of favourites being defeated. as we go into the last round we have three equal leaders and they are Danger (Di Walsh) Adam Lane ,and Hafey's Hacks (Mick Barden. Di led for most of the first half, Adam has been leading the last few weeks and Mick has controlled second place There will be a close contest to be in the top ten. Delina Frank could possible disturb the present top three and Kees Duyvestyn , Tessa Houlihan, Terry Roberts Maree O'Halloran ,Go Cats and Peter Keightley are all performing well in the last few rounds.

FINALS Competition If you have not yet enrolled for the FINALS it is not too late, It costs only $5 to enter. Rig Geoff on 59751707 or email at amdgrc@gmail.com. Why not have some fun with the Finals. Week 1 you have pick 4 winners. If you do so you have to pick 2 in week if at any stage in weeks 1,2 or 3 everyone goes out we all come back for week 4

Last week. There was some Rugby news about the Wallabies great win against New Zealand (All Blacks) with a warning re the game at Eden Park. The warning was correct. All Blacks 40 Wallabies 0. "What does the Wallabies and Sydney Harbour Bridge has In common" HISTORY. We said go bye to Polly Farmer one the greatest footballers who have played Australian Rules. Many remarked on his skills. There was also the emphasis he put on practice compared to others. Practice , practice , practice
