Second Reading 2 Thes 2:16 – 3:5

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

May the Lord strengthen you in everything good that you do or say.

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who has given us his love and, through his grace, such inexhaustible comfort and such sure hope, comfort you and strengthen you in everything good that you do or say.

Finally, brothers, pray for us; pray that the Lord's message may spread quickly, and be received with honour as it was among you; and pray that we may be preserved from the interference of bigoted and evil people, for faith is not given to everyone. But the Lord is faithful, and he will give you strength and guard you from the evil one, and we, in the Lord, have every confidence that you are doing and will go on doing all that we tell you. May the Lord turn your hearts towards the love of God and the fortitude of Christ.

Gospel Acclamation Rv 1:5. 6

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ is the firstborn of the dead;
glory and kingship be his for ever and ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 20:27-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

He is not a God of the dead but of the living.

Some Sadducees – those who say that there is no resurrection – approached Jesus and they put this question to him, 'Master, we have it from Moses in writing, that if a man's married brother dies childless, the man must marry the widow to raise up children for his brother. Well, then, there were seven brothers. The first, having married a wife, died childless. The second and then the third married the widow. And the same with all seven, they died leaving no children. Finally the woman herself died. Now, at the resurrection, to which of them will she be wife since she had been married to all seven?'

Jesus replied, 'The children of this world take wives and husbands, but those who are judged worthy of a place in the other world and in the resurrection from the dead do not marry because they can no longer die, for they are the same as the angels, and being children of the resurrection they are sons of God. And Moses himself implies that the dead rise again, in the passage about the bush where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all men are in fact alive.'

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose,
near restful waters he leads me.

Parish Census – we're updating our records

The parish census will be temporarily placed on hold until a new Parish Priest is appointed.

We will advise the new dates in the Bulletin. Thank you.

PIETY STALL

Christmas is only weeks away so why not avoid the stress of shopping. Come and visit the Piety Shop we have new stock available for all your family and friends. We have a variety of gifts such as, Missals for adults and children, Rosary beads, comfort crosses for the sick and elderly, a great gift for them. Columban calendars also make a great gift.

We also have Christmas gifts for the kids, such as a beautiful Nativity Set, or Advent Calendar which will teach the young about Christmas. These are great gifts for Nan and Pops house for when the kids visit. We also have the Crystal Angels and the beautiful hanging Crystals with a lovely colour butterfly, that reflects different colours around the room when the sun shines on them, very relaxing for anyone to watch. Stop by. you won't be disappointed. We will also be getting in beautiful Christmas Lanterns from Germany. They will look divine as centre piece on the Christmas Table or placed around your home. We will advise when these arrive.
