First Reading Is 8:23 – 9:3

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

In days past the Lord humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in days to come he will confer glory on the Way of the Sea on the far side of Jordan, province of the nations.

The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light; on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone.

You have made their gladness greater, you have made their joy increase, they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time, as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils.

For the yoke that was weighing on him, the bar across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 26:1. 4. 13 -14. R. v. 1

(R.) The Lord is my light and my salvation.

Second Reading 1 Cor 1:10-13, 17

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

I appeal to you, brothers, for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ, to make up the differences between you, and instead of disagreeing among yourselves, to be united again in your belief and practice. From what Chloe's people have been telling me, my dear brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you. What I mean are all these slogans that you have, like: 'I am for Paul', 'I am for Apollos', 'I am for Cephas', 'I am for Christ'. Has Christ been parcelled out? Was it Paul that was crucified for you? Were you baptised in the name of Paul?

For Christ did not send me to baptise, but to preach the Good News, and not to preach that in the terms of philosophy in which the crucifixion of Christ cannot be expressed.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia! Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick. Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 4:12-23

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Hearing that John had been arrested Jesus went back to Galilee, and leaving Nazareth he went and settled in Capernaum, a lakeside town on the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali. In this way the prophecy of Isaiah was to be fulfilled: Land of Zebulun! Land of Naphtali! Way of the sea on the far side of Jordan, Galilee of the nations! The people that lived in darkness has seen a great light; on those who dwell in the land and shadow of death a light has dawned. From that moment Jesus began his preaching with the message, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, who was called Peter, and his brother Andrew; they were making a cast in the lake with their net, for they were fishermen. And he said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.' And they left their nets at once and followed him. Going on from there he saw another pair of brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they were in their boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. At once, leaving the boat and their father, they followed him. He went round the whole of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom and curing all kinds of diseases and sickness among the people.

Communion Antiphon Jn 8:12

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.

DID YOU KNOW?

- When the people of Israel returned to the Promised Land after their liberation from Egypt, the land was divided among the twelve tribes descended from the twelve sons of Jacob. Zebulun and Naphtali were two of those sons.
- Matthew uses the term kingdom of heaven rather than kingdom of God. This may have been because his audience is largely Jewish, and Jews avoided using the sacred name of God.
- This is another example of Matthew stating that, in Jesus, the Old Testament prophecies of the Messiah coming are fulfilled.

For those affected by the Bushfires

"For days now, our skies across Melbourne have been filled with the smell and haze of the fires – a steady reminder that our neighbours, so close to us particularly in the Gippsland areas, the bordering States of NSW and South Australia, are in dire need.

We stand with all those affected by the devastation of these bushfires, as well as those working tirelessly to assist in the recovery efforts." - Archbishop Peter Comensoli

Help our neighbours by donating at www.vinnies.org.au or as part of our Parish Special Collection on Australia Day weekend.

Dear ministers of communion to the sick and infirmed, I would greatly appreciate meeting with you all.

I have asked Clive Tucker to organise a meeting, he will be in contact with you, or please contact Clive on 0421 772 563, so as arrangements can be made. Also Barbara Ensil to assist in coordinating this team.

> And thank you for all the wonderful care you give to others. Fr Geoff.

What must it have been like for those first four disciples Jesus called? The fact that they were fishing means that they had not been chosen to continue studying the Torah beyond childhood and had not been chosen by a rabbi to be his followers. Even as young men, these four were has-beens and had no hope of a rabbi asking them to be his disciples. Suddenly, Jesus appears and calls them to follow him. A life that had passed them by suddenly opened up before them! Of course they dropped everything and followed.

EXPLORING THE WORD

This gospel tells of the first public actions of Jesus' ministry. It should be studied in conjunction with the first reading from Isaiah, which speaks of a light coming that breaks the 'bars', 'yokes' and 'rods' that bind people and weigh them down.

- What are the things that weigh you down at the moment?
 - From what does our world need to be liberated?

This gospel reveals Jesus as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy. John the Baptist, the precursor, has now left the scene, having been arrested, so Jesus takes up and completes his message of repentance because the kingdom is at hand. In the final verses, the manifestation of that kingdom is made apparent. People are healed and the Good News is proclaimed. The second part of this text shows the effectiveness of Jesus' message. His voice and his proclamation draw people from their labours to a new kind of work: cooperating in the task of drawing people to the truth of God's plan for the world.

• Explore the call of discipleship and what that means for people who follow Christ today. How are we called to 'come, follow me'?

Musicians needed for 5pm Sunday mass

We are looking for musicians to join the group for the 5pm mass on Sundays. Pianists and guitarists are especially needed as well as any other instrumentalists and singers. As of mid-February, there will be no instrumentalists in the group so we would love to see some new faces.

Rehearsals are every Sunday before mass.

Please don't hesitate to contact the parish office or Emily on 0478539977

Parishioners may be interested to know that the "Vinnies " advertisement shown on TV during last week was paid for by the ANZ Bank.

Originally the bank intended using the week leading in to the Australian Open for their own advertising purposes .

However, the torrid bushfire situation influenced the Bank to promote the work of the Society and encourage donations to the Society's Bushfire Appeal. Our parish Conference is grateful to the ANZ and wants their generosity acknowledged.

Rosters for Sunday Readers and Eucharistic Ministers Feb—May Rosters for Extraordinary Ministers of Communion and Readers/Commentators for February – March this year are available for collection in each church foyer. Please take one copy for each family.

The rosters will also be on noticeboards and printed each week in the bulletin as previously.

Also available for collection, on coloured paper, is the master list of ministers for the year, please take a copy for each involved family.

This is your primary resource to consult when the inevitable happens and you can't keep your rostered duty.

Only when you have exhausted the possibilities on this list should you pass the problem to the Mass co-ordinator.

They will be scheduled for only one appointment per month and requests for specific weeks and times can be accommodated.

Thanks again for volunteering, you will see how short some of these lists are. If you can persuade further parishioners to offer their services, please do so.

Thanks again,

Chris Smyth
