First Reading Dt 4:32-34. 39-40

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors – all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt?

'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)

With his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars.
He spoke; and they came to be.
He commanded; they sprang into being. (R.)

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. (R.)

Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

Second Reading Rom 8:14-17

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Romans

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

Gospel Acclamation See Rv 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 28:16-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

Communion Antiphon Gal 4:6

Since you are children of God,
God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son,
the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Child Safety

From time to time it is our goal to keep you informed as to the progress of St Macartan's Child Safety Committee.

In this bulletin we wish to draw your attention to the following:

1. Sunday Liturgies. An important feature of our policy is that children are valued & protected at St Macartan's. We can achieve this by ensuring children do not go to the Parish toilets unaccompanied. They are not to go alone especially during mass. An adult needs to accompany their child to the toilet.
2. Posters: In our newsletter, website, foyers & Parish buildings, we have a display of two distinct posters. The first poster emphasises the value we place upon the safety of our children in the parish. The second poster demonstrates the Two (2) Adult rule which effectively states that a child cannot be alone with an adult, there must be at least two (2) adults in the company of a child.
3. Volunteer forms: in order to gather current information about our volunteers especially post COVID, all listed volunteers will receive a questionnaire via an sms. Please complete the survey & return asap, thank you.
4. Review & Audit: Last Thursday evening representatives from all parishes on the Mornington Peninsula met at St Macartan's to discuss & assist each other with Child Safety documentation. A report on this meeting will be in next week's newsletter.

Parish Footy Tipping Round 10

As usual many surprises and some unexpected results. As the season progresses our Parish tippers are more consistent but unfortunately no one chose the 9. Apologies for one particular mistake by an umpire seems strange. There are many human errors made by umpires. It has always happened and will continue to happen. It is part of the game. Why apologise, the result of the game does not change. Overall a good round for the tippers. The best tippers for the round Mr. Frank Like Misti alias SM! There will be less games this weekend because of the lockdown.

HISTORY: Recently there have been a number of games won or lost by one point. In 1966 Grand Final finally after 2 minutes of time-on had ticked away from a ball=up Steer of Collingwood tapped the ball over his head and Breen of St.Kilda grabbed the ball and sent a long bouncing kick through for a behind to give the Saints their first premiership. I have it on good authority, this story was never told around the Steer family dinner table!! In later times in another St.Kilda Grand Final, Stephen Milne tried the same bouncing kick but unfortunately the ball bounced to the left of the goal post. In both games the winning margin was one point.
