First Reading

Acts 6:1-7

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They elected seven men filled with the Spirit and wisdom.

About this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenists made a complaint against the Hebrews: in the daily distribution their own widows were being overlooked. So the Twelve called a full meeting of the disciples and addressed them, 'It would not be right for us to neglect the word of God so as to give out food; you, brothers, must select from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, filled with the Spirit and with wisdom; we will hand over this duty to them, and continue to devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the word.' The whole assembly approved of this proposal and elected Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus of Antioch, a convert to Judaism. They presented these to the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

The word of the Lord continued to spread: the number of disciples in Jerusalem was greatly increased, and a large group of priests made their submission to the faith.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 32:1-2. 4-5. 18-19. R. v.22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. Ring out your joy to the Lord, O you just;
for praise is fitting for loyal hearts.
Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp,
with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs. (R.)
2. For the word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)
3. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Pt 2:4-9

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood.

The Lord is the living stone, rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him; set yourselves close to him so that you too, the holy priesthood that offers the spiritual sacrifices which Jesus Christ has made acceptable to God, may be living stones making a spiritual house. As scripture says: See how I lay in Zion a precious cornerstone that I have chosen and the man who rests his trust on it will not be disappointed. That means that for you who are believers, it is precious; but for unbelievers, the stone rejected by the builders has proved to be the keystone, a stone to stumble over, a rock to bring men down. They stumble over it because they do not believe in the word; it was the fate in store for them.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a consecrated nation, a people set apart to sing the praises of God who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 14:6

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.

Alleluia!

Gospel Jn 14:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I am the way, the truth, and the life.

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘Do not let your hearts be troubled.

Trust in God still, and trust in me.

There are many rooms in my Father’s house;

if there were not, I should have told you.

I am now going to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me;
so that where I am you may be too.

You know the way to the place where I am going.’

Thomas said, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?’ Jesus said:

‘I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.

No one can come to the Father except through me.

If you know me, you know my Father too.

From this moment you know him and have seen him.’

Philip said, ‘Lord, let us see the Father and then we shall be satisfied.’ ‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip,’ said Jesus to him ‘and you still do not know me?’

‘To have seen me is to have seen the Father, so how can you say, “Let us see the Father”? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me?’

Cont... Gospel Jn 14:1-12

The words I say to you I do not speak as from myself:
it is the Father, living in me, who is doing this work.

You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me;
believe it on the evidence of this work, if for no other reason.

‘I tell you most solemnly,
whoever believes in me
will perform the same works as I do myself,
he will perform even greater works,
because I am going to the Father.’

The Creed is said.

Communion Antiphon Cf. Jn 15:1,5

I am the true vine and you are the branches, says the Lord.
Whoever remains in me, and I in him, bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.

Historical Context

It is for the best...

At the time of this gospel's writing, some 70 years after the events it describes, amazing things have taken place in the early Christian community. Rather than everything falling apart with the death of Jesus, the message of Jesus has spread further than he himself could ever have accomplished. It is the departure of Jesus from their midst and the sending of the Spirit that really prompts the disciples to act on what they had experienced while Jesus lived among them. The gospel writer has Jesus saying that he has to go away so that the disciples can reach their potential.

Gospel Reflection

The gospel readings for this week and next week shift the focus away from the resurrection and begin to set us up for the departure of Jesus from the earth – the Ascension – and the sending of the Holy Spirit – the Pentecost event.

Today's gospel passage comes from the very long Last Supper discourse in the gospel of John. When Jesus speaks about 'going away' for a time it could be interpreted as the period of his death and rising that are about to occur in the chronology of the story. However, the gospel of John is written a very long time after the death of Jesus; perhaps as much as 70 years after Jesus. Given this period of time between the events and the writing, we know that the writer was also referring to this longer time of Jesus 'going away'. By the time of the writing of this gospel the early Christians were starting to come to terms with the fact that Jesus probably wasn't going to return in their lifetime. They had seen the devastating destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple by the Romans in 70CE which they thought had signalled the end of all time.

Pope at Audience: May we never forget our roots as we build bridges of humanity

Pope Francis addresses the faithful gathered in St Peter's Square. In the wake of his recent apostolic visit to Hungary he recalls two important aspects of the lives of Hungarian people and their nation: roots and bridges.

By Francesca Merlo

Addressing the faithful gathered in St Peter's Square for his weekly General Audience, Pope Francis recalled his recent trip to Hungary and decided to focus on two images: roots and bridges.

Roots

Pope Francis stressed how he saw "so many humble and hard-working people proudly cherish the bond with their roots" during his Journey to Hungary, adding that "among these roots are first and foremost the saints: saints who gave their lives for the people, saints who bore witness to the Gospel of love, saints who were lights in times of darkness; so many saints of the past who today exhort us to overcome the risk of defeatism and the fear of tomorrow, remembering that Christ is our future".

The Pope then went on to note that despite this, the Hungarian people have been put to the test. "Their faith, as we have heard from the Word of God, has been tested by fire", he said, remembering the persecution of the 20th century, in which "Christians were struck down violently, priests, religious, and lay people killed or deprived of their freedom". Despite these attempts, the Pope said, "to cut down the tree of on to note that Hungarian people have been put to the test. "Their faith, as we have heard from the Word of God, has been tested by fire", he said, remembering the persecution of the 20th century, in which "Christians were struck down violently, priests, religious, and lay people killed or deprived of their freedom". Despite these attempts, the Pope said, "to cut down the tree of faith, the roots remained intact": a hidden Church remained steadfast, with many clergy ordained in secret, who bore witness to the Gospel by working in factories, while grandmothers evangelised in hiding.

Bridges

Pope Francis then turned to the second image: bridges. Budapest, the Pope noted, is famous for three bridges "that cross and unite its parts". He noted how he had stressed, in Hungary, "the vocation of Europe, which is called, a "bridge of peace," to include differences and to welcome those who knock on its doors. In this sense, the humanitarian bridge created for so many refugees from neighbouring Ukraine, whom I was able to meet while also admiring the great network of charity of the Hungarian Church, is beautiful".

Continuing with the image of the bridge, the Holy Father noted that the country is also very committed to building bridges "for tomorrow", with its concern for ecology. "There are also bridges that the Church is called upon to stretch towards the people of today, because the proclamation of Christ cannot consist only in repeating the past, but always needs to be updated, so as to help the women and men of our time to rediscover Jesus".

Finally, the Pope recalled "with gratitude" the beautiful liturgical moments, and reflected on the "beauty of building bridges between believers".

Let us ask ourselves, the Pope concluded, whether we too are building bridges in our daily lives, before entrusting Hungary to Mary, "the Queen of Hungary" and "Queen of Peace".

EXCELSIS

Excelsis is one of Melbourne's most exciting and dynamic choirs, singing predominantly for Catholic liturgical events and giving regular concert performances. In recent years, highlights for the choir have included performing to capacity audiences at St Patrick's Cathedral, St Paul's Cathedral, and Deakin Edge (Federation Square).

The choir sings an extremely varied repertoire of both secular and sacred music, incorporating classical European works, hymnody, contemporary music, traditional African pieces, spirituals, gospel songs and Broadway favourites. Excelsis takes its name from the Latin word, meaning 'highest'. Through the music which it sings, the choir aims to achieve the highest musical and performance goals.

After popular demand Excelsis returns to the Mornington Winter Festival and will be performing, with a soloist, on Saturday 10th June at 2pm in the St Macartan Church (6 Drake St Mornington - parking is behind the church the entrance is off Cook St).

PIETY STORE

Hello Friends

We hope you have all been keeping as well as possible and taking good care of each other.

It's been a while, but here we are fully stocked and raring to go.

We are excited that we have managed to make contact with a supplier who has a great range of products for the Sacraments of Baptism and Reconciliation, products that haven't been available through our current suppliers. It's great to finally have a selection of gifts for these Sacraments other than children's books.

We also have a great selection for the Sacraments of Communion which was last weekend and didn't the children look beautiful. They had great pleasure in choosing a gift to commemorate their first Holy Communion.

Confirmation is on the 19th May at St Patricks Cathedral so don't leave buying a gift until the last minute. We have sold out on a few really popular gifts so hopefully replacements will arrive this week. There are also great gifts to commemorate the Sacrament of Confirmation.

The best gift I have found is a series of books for primary school kids, "Catholic Children's Classics"

Titles include: Our Father/Hail Mary – these two important prayers are explained line by line, so meaningful - Favorite Prayers for Children which include a variety of important prayers they will use throughout their life - The Angels of God, explain who the Angels are and the roll each Angel has been given by God – Gift of Reconciliation, which covers God's forgiveness, the commandments, going to Reconciliation, prayers before and after Reconciliation. Another title: My First Mass Book – ideal for the young to follow Mass word for word. I have read them all and I am so very impressed. They are an ideal gift for any primary aged child, books that will teach them the basic prayers and what they mean, prayers they will use throughout their lives, and knowing these prayers is so important.

There are many other new gifts for many occasions, so if you haven't visited us recently, pop in and have a look.

There will be a table set up outside the Gift Shop on Sunday to assist parents and grandparents who wish to purchase a gift to commemorate their child's Confirmation, and also a small table honouring The Blessed Virgin Mary being the month of May.

The Gift Shop opens on Sunday at 8.30am until 12.30pm to give you a chance to browse.

MAY... THE MONTH OF OUR LADY

LET US PRAY FOR PEACE AND CONVERSION FOR ALL NATIONS AND PEOPLES THROUGH THE HOLY ROSARY.

"THE BIBLE ON BEADS"

OUR BLESSED MOTHER TOLD THE LITTLE CHILDREN OF FATIMA, "PRAYING THE ROSARY CAN STOP WARS!!!"

Jokes of The Week

1) “No thanks.” Evangelist Billy Graham tells of a time during the early years of his preaching ministry when he was due to lead a crusade meeting in a town in South Carolina, and he needed to mail a letter. He asked a little boy in the main street how he could get to the post office. The boy gave him directions. Billy said, “If you come to the Central Baptist Church tonight, I’ll tell you how to get to Heaven, God the Father’s house.” The boy replied, “No thanks. You don’t even know how to get to the post office, and you are going to teach me how to go to Heaven?!”

2) To the Father’s House with two bags of currency: A stingy old lawyer who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness was determined to prove wrong the saying, “You can’t take it with you.” After much thought and consideration, the old ambulance-chaser finally figured out how to take at least some of his money with him when he died. He instructed his wife to go to the bank and withdraw enough paper currency to fill two pillowcases. He then directed her to take the bags of money to the attic and leave them directly above his bed. His plan was that when he passed away, he would reach out and grab the bags on his way to Heaven. Several weeks after the funeral, the deceased lawyer’s wife, while cleaning the attic, came upon the two forgotten pillowcases stuffed with currency. “Oh, that poor old soul,” she sighed in pity. “How sad. Of all people, he should have known that money only spends here!”

3) “Is anyone down there?” There is the story of a man who fell off a cliff. On the way down he manages to grab a tree limb. Peering into a deep canyon, he shudders, looks up, and calls out, “Help, please. Is anyone up there?” After an unbearable silence, a voice answers, “Yes, I am here.” “Who are you?” the man shouts. “It’s Me, the Lord!” Greatly relieved, the man says, “Thank you. Have you come to rescue me?” “Yes,” says the Lord. “Let go the rope.” The man thinks for a second, and then asks, “Is there anyone else up there?” — Well, we can understand the man’s reluctance to let go, but, in reality, there is no one else up there. Jesus says it quite plainly this Sunday, “I am the Way” (Jn 14:6). He does not say a way, but the way.
